SENATOR CUDABACK: Yes, there are, Senator. There are about seven now.

SENATOR BEUTLER: (Laugh) Good work.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Well, it gives me some time to...that was my problem with punching in the light, is that it's tough to vote on an amendment where there's been no discussion.

SENATOR CUDABACK: You have one minute.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: And I...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Yeah. No, I'm glad there's going to be discussion,...

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Thank you.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...because I'm not sure I understand everything perfectly clearly either.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Thank you. I'd yield my time back.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Kristensen. (Visitors introduced.) Senator Wehrbein on the Beutler amendment, followed Senators Chambers, Schimek, Crosby, Bromm, Brashear.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Thank you, Mr. President, members. This is indirectly related to Senator Beutler's amendment, but I guess my question may well be for Senator Schimek, if I may.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Schimek, Senator Schimek, would you respond to a question, please? Senator Schimek, would you...?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: DiAnna?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I'm not sure this applies. But it is...when I saw postsecondary or secondary education. And I'm sitting
